The History Behind The 'Business With Disease'

From the birth of IG Farben to 'Arbeit Macht Frei' to 'Codex Alimentarius' the development of the 'business with disease' followed a carefully planned route.

How The 'Business With Disease' Operates

The main principles governing the pharmaceutical "business with disease"

Why The 'Business With Disease' Must Be Stopped

There is an entire industry with an innate economic interest to obstruct, suppress and discredit any information about the eradication of diseases. The pharmaceutical industry makes over one trillion dollars from selling drugs for ongoing diseases. These drugs may relieve symptoms, but they do not cure

The Dr Rath Health Foundation Vs The 'Business With Disease'

Outlaw the 'Business with Disease': The Chemnitz Program

"Only once in the history of mankind comes the moment when the breakthrough towards the control of cardiovascular disease is made. That moment is now"

Liberating Human Health

Mankind is currently undertaking one of the great movements in its history: The liberation of our health from the yoke of a medicine driven by the 'business with disease'

The Health Movement Against Codex

The aims of Codex Alimentarius are clearly defined: statements on the curative effects of vitamins and other natural remedies will be banned and made a punishable offense. In the future, the distinction between a foodstuff and a medicine will be made by the pharmaceutical industry itself and not by governments
